OFFICE BOY'S QUEER BLUNDER.

Threw Away Checks and Now Colonel Hobbs Is in Trouble.

A story that is going the rounds causes many a hearty faugh at the expense of Colonel William A. Hobbs, former Recorder of Deeds, and at present manager of the Daily Hotel Reporter. Much of colonel Hobbs's business is done in the morning before he arrives at his office. His office loy, Thomas, who is a promating youth, attends to a good deal of the work, He acquitted himself so well on all occasions that Colonel Hobbs intrusted Thomas with the opening of the mail.

Hobbs intrusted Thomas with the opening of the mail.

"If any money comes in the letters by it carefully selde," was the instruction. "Fix all letters in a neat pile on my desk ready for me to read. Any advertisements, bills or worthless notices which arrive can be thrown into the waste basket."

Thomas promised to follow the instructions to the letter. Things went on well for awhile. All the money was had aside and letters piled neatly, but a number of shocks which should have come to the office from several large firms in payment for advertising failed to appear. It was ascert the distance that the checks had been sent all right.

Colonel Hobbs at once started an investigation, which left nothing unsearched. At the bottom of Thomas's waste-basket the Colonel discovered a check of one of the large Broadway jewelry-houses torn in two. Then the storm turst over the decoded head of Thomas. He explained that he lad put aside the money carefully, but thought such the office and simply tore them up. Vesterday the Colonel spent much time in going from one advertises to snother te learn how many checks Thomas had really destroyed.

END OF STRIKERS' BUS LINE.

Committee to Submit Its Fina! Report To-Day.

The Bus Committee of the strikers probably will go out of existence to-day. The committee is composed of Leon Greet-baum, Joseph Murphy, A. W. Morrison, T. A. Holt and J. J. Hund, It was formed in the early days of the late street railway strike by the Central Trades and Labor Union for the purpose of salicing funds and providing for labor sympathizers a mode of transportation.

Thousands of deflars were collected and hundreds of teams and wagons were put on the streets by the committee.

Secretary Greenbaum will submit a final statement of the committee a receipts and disbursements to the Central Trades and Labor Union at its meeting to-day and ask to have the committee dizcharged.

The assets on hand probably will be placed in the general treasury of the central Trades and Labor Union, though an effort will be made to have them turned over to the Executive Committee of the strikers for distribution among those who most need assistance. The Auditing Committee of the bus line was at work last night on its report. No statement could be secured as to what the total assets would be, but it was admitted the amount would reach into the thousands. Yesterday the strikers. The Bus Committee of the strikers prob-

Ground on Seckner Company's Cir.

Clir lights on three circuits of the underground district, lighted by the Seckner Contracting Company, were out of order last night, and in consequence no are lights burned. Fortunately it was a moenlight night and the darkness did not occasion that inconvenience which would have resulted had there been no natural light.

The circuits affected were batween Cerre street on the south and Washington avenue on the north, and the river and Eligiteenth street on the east and west respectively. The "trouble" was due to the grounding of a wire somewhere in the circuits involved. The exact location of the grounded wire had not been determined at a late hour last night, and, in view of the fact that it was under ground, the chances were greatly against relief before daylight. Max C. Way, superintendent of construction of the Imperial company, said: "We have been mable to locate the break, but there is no possible chance of danger, as the wire is underground. We have sent men in every direction to locate the trouble, and will remedy it as soon as possible."

BRYAN REPLIES TO THE FLAG ARGUMENT.

He Speaks to a Demonstrative Audience in a Milwaukee Park.

HIS TRIP BROKE THE RECORD.

Ninety-Six Minutes After Leaving Chicago the Democratic Leader Bows to Enthusiastic Crowd in the Wisconsin City.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 8.-William J. Bryan made a record-breaking riffroad nun the Democratic National campaign in Wiscensin. Ninety-six minutes after the canditate's special train left Chicago, Colonel Bryan was bowing to an enthusiastic crowd which met him at the depot here.

ay's doings, Mayor Harrison and the Cook county Democratic Marchine Club, with a brass band, accompanying Mr. Bryan on the train. The special was met at Western Union Junction by Mayor Rose and other Milwaukee officials and citizens of promipence. At the Milwsukee depot a band was taken in carriages at the head of a procession to the City Hall, where the national candidate made mute acknowledgment to the crowd's greeting. After a brief pause Colonei Bryan was driven to the resi-cience of W. G. Bruce, chairman of the Milwankee City and County Democratic Comnittee for luncheon.

Mayors Harrison and Rose went to Na-the Cook County marchers were taken in street cars to National Park, where they were served a luncheon until the speakers arrived, at 426 o'clock.

Refore the arrival of Mr. Bryan, the owd, which showed evident signs of im-ional Park to watch a baseball game, and ctowd, which showed evident signs of impatience, was addressed by Mayor Harrison of Chicago and Louis J. Bohmrich, candidate for Governor of Wisconsin.

Mr. Bryan said, in part:

"The Republican party is not prepared to defend its position upon any question before the country. The question that Republicans leaders want to talk about is the mone; question and they are not better able to defend the Republican position on the money question than they are on other questions. The only reason they prefer to talk about the money question is that when they talk on that question they can use old arguments and when they talk on the trusts and imperiallem they cannot use any arguments. (Applause and laughter.)

After devoting the greater portion of his speech to discussion of the financial question. Mr. Bryan attacked imperialism. He said:

"Let me ask of you Republicans: Did you

"Let me ask of you Republicans: Did you buy the Filipinos from Spain? Who says that you can buy sovereignty over human beings? Will the Republican party assert that doctrine? It so, what becomes of the doctrine that governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed? (Arolause.)

"Spain found the Filipinos there, went in with a club, beat them into submission, and then sat down, holding the club. We found here sitting there, paid $20,000,000 for the club, and then sat down there ourselves. (Great applause.) Is that your title?"

and then sat down, holding the club. We found here sitting there, paid $20,000,000 for the club, and then sat down there our selves. (Great applause.) is that your title?"

Benpamin Franklin said that the securing of trede was not a cause for which we can justly spill each other's blood. I believe Franklin was right. Are you willing to place a price up on a human being? We have lost more than 2,000 soldiers in the Philippine Islands. How much trade ought we get in return? (Applause) What answer will you make to the mother who loses her son?

If you want to buy trade with human blood go out and buy it with your own blood and don't send some one else to be killed. (Applause and cheers.)

"Our religion teaches the gospel of love and not the gospel of force. American blood was shed in Cuba, and yet the President told us that we could get out of Cuba?"

They tell us that the flag was raised

They tell us that the log was raised over Manila and must stay there for ever? The American flag was raised over Cuba and the President has promised that that flag will be hauled down when the Cuban flag is ready to be raised in its place, and if a Republican President can haul down that flag 250 miles from our shores a Democratic President can haul it down 7,000 miles from our shores (Girat analysis). miles from our shores. (Great applause.)
But the Republicans will not use this argument much more, why? Because they have bouled the flag down in Alaska. (Great applicase.)
"Republicans, do you believe that when the flag once goes up it can never come down? If you do, how are you going to get the American flag out of China? (Great the flag once goes up it can never come down? If you do, how are you going to get the American flag out of China? (Great applause.)

"If, for the reason the flag floats over Manila, we are enabled to keep the Philippine Islands, does the fact that the flag floats over Pekin make us perpetual owners of China. Republicans, you have got to give up your flag argument. You have got to take our flag argument. You have got to take our flag argument. Our doetrine is that the flag belongs to the people. They can raise it whenever they get ready. (Appleuse and cheers.) Our plan is simple. Let us treat the Filipino as we promised to treat the Cuban.

"We told the Cubans that we were not fighting for land, but were fighting for liberty. Tell the Filipinos the same thing.

"We promised the Cubans that we would drive the Spaniards out, and would give them their independence. Let us say the same thing to the Filipinos, and then stand by them, as an elder brother, and say to the rest of the world, 'Hands off!"

Mr. Bryan made his second speech in Milwaukee to-night addresing a larger crowd than that which greeted him at National Park this evening. It was the occasion of the opening of the Wisconsin Industrial Expositia. Colonel Bryan was preceded by Mayor Harrison of Chicago. Colonel Bryan said, in part.

"A thought that is impressed upon me by this exhibit here is that competition is the thing that stimulates and makes us approach perfection. The fact that these manufacturers meet here to compare their wares, the fact that they present the very host things at the very lowest price—this accounts for your progress and your growth and us you see in this stimulus and in this rivalry the evidence of advancement beware of anything that strikes at that competitive principle and robs society of the stimulus that comes from an endeavor to excel any one else.

"If all these factories were owned by one corporation it would not be necessary for approach perfection."

NEW CHALLENGE FOR JEFFRIES. "Strong Man" Says He Can Lift More and Box as Well.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, Sept. 8.—Having read of the woncerful feets of Champion James Jeffries in the weight-lifting line, Rolandow, the strong man, called at the office of an evening newspaper here to-day and issued a challense to Jeffries offering to meet him at weight-lifting and also to box him six rounds. The challenge reads:

"If Mr. Jeffries will come to terms in a weight-lifting contest with me, choosing his own terms, and gives me the same privilege to pick the rules of a sk-round bout, i will meet him in said bout in private or public. "If this should fall through with Mr. Jeffries, I would be pleased to meet any man in the world in a weight-lifting contest for any amount of money from $1,000 up."

Rolandow says he is prepared to carry out every provision set forth in the challenge. He has been noted for his marvelous feats of strength, but few of his friends ever knew that he was an adept with the gloves. He says he is and that he has practised many times with them and is a bit clever. "Here is just the way it stands," he said: "I know about as much about boxing as Jeffries knows about weight-lifting. To decide which is the better at both a contest is necessary.

"He would knock my head off? Oh, I guess not. I'm pretty well used to the gloves, and I don't think he can do it in six rounds anyway. Realiy, I think I would give him the hardest battle of his life during that period. I am strong and, naturally, I can hit hard, I can stop a blow when it's coming my way, and I know a the murder of Robe. REPUBLIC SPECIAL

"But the result of a match will better tell who is the better at one or the other or both. It's up to Jeffries."

NAVAL MILITIA OF MISSOURI.

Recruits Coming in Rapidly and a Second Division Probable.

The First Division, Naval Militia of Missouri, will hold its regular weekly drill next. Tuesday night at the Armory, Eighteenth and Pine streets.

At the monthly business meeting last Tuesday night the following officers were elected: W. F. Roberts, Ensign, senior grade, advanced to Lieutenant, Junior grade; Perry Topping, Ensign, senior grade; O. Greenwalt, Quartermaster, first class, advanced to Ensign, junior grade; Isaac Betts, marine engineer. vanced to Ensign, unior grave, issue betts, marine engineer.

Following is a list of those who came in since August is, and were elected to membership: John Gannon, Paul Brink, William Brewe, F. Swinhart, F. R. Mathews, E. F. Martin, C. J. Petill, Arthur King, Charles Layton, A. F. Gauen, John Syron, Edward J. Schoenholz, A. C. Hummel, Ben Brandenberg, Harry Clayton.

Mayor Ziegenhein and party, composed of city officials and their friends, will attend the Belleville Street Fair next Thursday. They will go in a splendid car, departing in the daytime and returning by the light of the harvest moon. The Mayor has been happy, it is said, because the silver light of the moon has been so effective a substitute for artifickal street illumination in St. Louis, and a trip like this will afford a rare opportunity to expend his surplus enthusiasm.

It is estimated at the City Hall that the city's deficit might eventually be obliterated if the streets could be lighted by the pale moon long enough and the cost of street lighting be saved. The Mayor's give because lighting be saved. The Mayor's give because the harvest moon came to the city's reacuse is said to be infectious about the City Hall, and it is understood that the Mayor is hoping the night will not be cloudy next Thursday, and the generous pale glow buried in a somber sky.

It appears that the demand has suddenly become urgent, for yesterday five cable-grams were received by Takisha, all dated Yokohama, September 6, and two more to day, bearing to-day's date, all relative to the quick return of men. There are about 1,399 Japanese in the service of the Oregon Short Line, and, while Mr. Takisha is not prepared to say how many will be drafted by his Government, he anticipates a heavy reduction on this account.

SOUGHT BED IN OLD HOSPITAL Mrs. Long and Her Baby Found by the Police.

Mrs. Frances Long and her 2-months-old daughter, Helen, were found in the ruins of the old City Hospital, on Lafayette avenue, about 11:30 o'clock last night, where she Intended to seek shelter for the night, as she claimed she had had a quarret with her hus-band. George Long, a coal dealer at No. 228 Franklin avenue, and had been ferced. to leave home yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Long was taken to the City Hospital. as she had several slight wounds on her right arm and hand. She told Doctor Voers-ter at the City Dispensary that she had fallen from the second story of the old hos-pital, but later said that she had sumble and fallen into a hele as the policeman led her out of the rulns. Her arm was slightly injured. The mother and child are at the City Hospital.

TRAVELING MEN'S CLUB MEETS. Members Receive Reports and Listes

Much excitement was created in the neighborhood of Grand avenue and Chestnut street about 8:20 o'clock last night by the burning of the sheds in the rear of the residences from No. 2561 to 2511 Chestnut street, A horas belonging to W. N. Minor was incinerated in the stable at the rear of No. 2506 Chestnut street. The total loss is estimated to amount to 275.

The fire started in the shed in the rear of the home of J. Stellman, No. 2507 Chestnut street. It spread rapidly from shed to shed until the entire row of wooden buildings from the corner to No. 2511 Chestnut street was in fiames. The neighborhood was in an uproar, as it was feared that the fire might spread to the residences. Finally the fire passed over the alley to the building at No. 2506 Pine street, occupied by Theodore B. Forest, which was damaged to the extent of 2506. The sheds destroyed belonged to the Rankin estate. to an Address.

The Bryan Traveling Men's Club held 5 The Bryan Traveling Men's Club held rousing meeting list night in the assembly room at the Lindell Hotel. More than 20 traveling men were present. Reports from the Committee on New Members, of which Charles Pannel is chairman, show that more than 600 names have been enrolled within the last two days. The club expects to turn out 2,600 members on the occasion of W. J. Bryan's visit to St. Louis, on September 15. They will form at the Lindell Hotel and march in a body to the Colliseum, where seats will be reserved for them in the arena.

A resolution was adopted last night to purchase a grip for Mr. Bryan to be presented to him "as a traveling man who has made more towns in one day than any of them," as President George Harris decleared. After the business of the meeting had been disposed of P. E. Dow of New York addressed the club. Mr. Dow told of the injustice the trusts were working as the traveling men of the country, and declared that their formation had let $400.
